1st Reading

Deuteronomy 8:1–10

“The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that the LORD swore to give to your fathers. And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing out in the valleys and hills, a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper. And you shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.”

P O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Choir

“We Bring Our Thanks”

We are Your children, Lord. We bring our thanks to You.

For ev'ry blessing, Lord, for ev'ry gift from You.

For sun and rain, for fields of grain.

In humble gratitude, we bring our thanks to You.

We are Your children, Lord. We bring our thanks to You.

For ev'ry blessing, Lord, for ev'ry gift from You.

For budding flow'r, for gentle show'r.

*In humble gratitude, we bring our thanks to You.
For ev'ry good and perfect gift is from above,
sent to the earth from the Father with love.
He freely gives of His wealth, gives us life, gives us health.
In humble gratitude, we bring our thanks to You.*

*We are Your children, Lord. We bring our thanks to You.
And in Your presence, Lord, here in this holy room.
In joyful praise, our hearts we raise.
In humble gratitude, we bring our thanks to You.
We are Your children, Lord, we bring our thanks to You.*

2nd Reading

1 Timothy 2:1–4

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way. This is good, and it is pleasing in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all people to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

P O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

3rd Reading

Luke 17:11–19

On the way to Jerusalem [Jesus] was passing along between Samaria and Galilee. And as he entered a village, he was met by ten lepers, who stood at a distance and lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us." When he saw them he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went they were cleansed. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice; and he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, giving him thanks. Now he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus answered, "Were not ten cleansed? Where are the nine? Was no one found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" And he said to him, "Rise and go your way; your faith has made you well."

P O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.
